

YHVH'S APPOINTED TIMES / FEAST DAYS (Mo'adim)

Spring Feasts - First Coming:

Passover / Pesach

Unleavened Bread / Hag HaMatzot

First Fruits / Yom Hibikkurim

Pentecost / Feast of Weeks / Hag Hakatzir / Shavuot

Fall Feasts - Second Coming: (Represents)

Day of Trumpets / Yom Teruah (Repentance)

Day of Atonement / Judgement Day / Yom Kippur (Redemption)

Feast of Tabernacles / Sukkot (Rejoicing)

GLOSSARY OF COMMON TERMS

B'rit - Covenant, Contract

B'rit Hadasha - New Testament, New or Renewed Covenant

Booths - Sukkah, a 3-sided structure with natural open roof, used during 40 years in the wilderness (Egypt escape)

Chanukkah - Hanukah (Feast of Dedication)

Derech - Way, Path, Journey, Custom

Elohim - God, judges

El Shaddai - God Almighty

Etog - A fruit, usually a citron, used during Sukkot

Hadas - A myrtle branch, used during Sukkot

Mashiach - Messiah, Christ, Anointed

Mitzrayim - Hebraic equivalent of "Egypt"

Mizvah or Mitzvot - Command, Commandment, Instructions, Principles for Living

Mo'adim - Appointed Times, God's Calendar, Feast Days

Mo'ed - Seasons

Mosheh - Moses

Pleroo - Greek word meaning to fulfill, Fully teach or preach

Purim - Usually in March, it commemorates the deliverance of God's people (See: Book of Esther)

Rosh Chodesh - New moon, New month, Head of the month

Ruach HaKodesh - The Holy Spirit

Shabbat - Sabbath, God's appointed day of rest, Sundown Friday to Sundown Saturday. The 7th day.

Shalom - Used at meeting or parting, meaning "peace"

Shofar - A rams horn trumpet, Used as warning, call to arms, and in celebration

Tanakh - Old Testament. Comes from Torah (Instructions/Teaching/Law), Nevi'im (Prophets), Ketuvim (Writings). TaNakh

Talmid - Disciple, Student

Torah - Teaching or instruction, Books of Law (Genesis - Deuteronomy)

Yahweh / YHVH / YHWH - The biblical proper name of God

Yeshua / Y'shua - The biblical proper name of Jesus, means "God Saves" or "Yah is my salvation"